THREAT TO PAKISTAN AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES BY NATIONAL YOUTH ARMY
PROTECTION OF FOREIGN OFFICIALS AND GUESTS - SUBVERSIVE

On March 24, 1973, Mr. Greg Bujac, Special Agent, Office of Security, United States Department of State (USDS), advised that on that date the Embassy of Pakistan had informed the USDS that its mail of March 24, 1973, had contained a letter threatening the life of the Pakistan Ambassador to the United States and the lives of two children of Prime Minister Bhutto of Pakistan.

It was noted that two Bhutto children are attending school in Cambridge, Massachusetts. A daughter, Benazir Bhutto resides at Elliot House, Room I-35, Radcliffe College and a son Murtaza Bhutto, resides at the Moore House, Room 11-A, Harvard University. It was requested that the children not be advised of the threat.

On March 26, 1973, [redacted], Embassy of Pakistan, displayed an overseas airmail type envelope which when opened and unfolded contains the message on the inner surface of the envelope.

The envelope bore two Indian stamps one of which was airmail, and it was addressed to Mr. Sultan Muhammed Khan, the Pakistan Amessy, U.S.A., Wash. D.C. The postmark on the envelope was not legible, but it appeared to have been mailed in India.

The envelope contained the following message:

"National Youth Army
Jindabad

"We challenge you that you leave of the U.S.A. from 25 March, otherwise you will be killed by hand from N.Y.A.
Now we picked up the stand against Black December dogs. Our aims kill to Raja 'Tribedi Roy' Peerjada, 'Nural

Amin' both sons of Bhutto."

/s/ N.Y.A. Jindabad

[redacted] noted that in addition to the two Bhutto children attending school in the United States, Mr. Bhutto has another son in Pakistan.

[redacted] stated that he had never heard of the NYA and that this is the first time the Embassy has received such a letter. However, people in Pakistan had heard of the NYA and similar letters originating with the NYA have been received by prominent persons in Pakistan. He is of the opinion that the NYA is a group of Bengali living in India who have made the above threat in answer to the raid recently made by three Pakistani youth on the Indian High Commissioners Office in London, England. Those three represented themselves to be members of a group known as Black December. [redacted] also thinks they are Bengali because in the words "Jindabad" (long live), and Peerjada, a Pakistani would have used a letter Z instead of a letter J. He feels that his analysis is strengthened by the fact that two of the other individuals threatened are from East Pakistan but had remained loyal to the Government of Pakistan during the recent conflict. [redacted] identified the others threatened as follows:

Tribedi Roy is an apparent reference to Raja Tridev Roy, a Pakistani cabinet member and Loyalist from East Pakistan.

Peerjada is an apparent reference to Abdul Hafeez Peerzada, a Pakistani cabinet minister.

Nural Amin is the Vice President of Pakistan and an East Pakistani who remained loyal to the Government of Pakistan.
